Uncommon ways to use OpenOffice on the management of large construction projects

Presented by Andreas Weise on FOSDEM 2013
First example:
an easy way to produce timetables as Gantt charts
First example: an easy way to produce timetables as Gantt charts
First example:
an easy way to produce timetables as Gantt charts
Second example: a more sophisticated approach, create and calculate a cash outflow plan for a project.
Second example: a more sophisticated approach, create and calculate a cash outflow plan for a project.
Second example: a more sophisticated approach, create and calculate a cash outflow plan for a project.
Third example: visualizing a construction site with AOO Draw
Third example: visualizing a construction site with AOO Draw
Animation